Le Festival Choral MosaiK a pour objectif d'enrichir et d'inspirer les choristes amateurs de tous âges. Cette mosaïque de voix et de chants traditionnels se rassemble afin de rendre hommage à la diversité culturelle du Canada par l'entremise d'ateliers et de concerts, le tout dans un environnement non compétitif.

Parrainé par l'École secondaire publique De La Salle et le Harmonia Choir of Ottawa, chorales de la région, de 7 à 77 ans, unissent leurs voix sous la direction de Catherine Robbins. Depuis trois jours, les ateliers et les répétitions se sont succédés afin qu'on puisse vous présenter le concert de ce soir. Chaque chorale vous interprète une partie de son répertoire pour ensuite se réunir sur scène dans le grand chœur MosaiK sous la direction de Catherine Robbins.

The MosaiK Choral Festival enriches, energizes and inspires local choral artists of all ages and levels of experience. Our mosaic of voices and song celebrates the broad range of communities in Canada and the choral art through workshops and performances in a non-competitive environment.

Sponsored by Harmonia Choir of Ottawa and École secondaire publique De La Salle, choirs from across the city, featuring children, youth, and adults, have the unique opportunity to come together to sing in workshops and performance led by guest conductor Catherine Robbins. Workshops and rehearsals over the past three days culminate in this evening's concert in which participants perform from their own eclectic programmes and then join in the MosaiK massed choir directed by Catherine Robbins.
